Figure 2. Principal Component Analysis of all Part One samples and 25 Other samples

Principal component analysis of all collected samples and 25 other deidentified samples.
Bacterial composition similarity is represented by proximity, and is plotted using multidimensional scaling, with Bray–Curtis as distance metric. Sample color denotes origin as shown in the legend.